

An Introduction to Tellington TTouch Workshop For Companion Animals (dogs)

★ This workshop will focus on helping firework and noise reactive dogs ★

Saturday 28th March 2020

10.00 – 16.30

Coolham Village Hall, Billingshurst Rd, Horsham, RH13 8GN

Hosted by Caroline Still Tellington TTouch P2 Practitioner

You will learn holistic, respectful skills to help calm, relax, and give confidence to your dog, by increasing their self confidence and self-control.

Suitable for excitable, playful, senior, puppies, lead pullers, noise reactive dogs, and shy dogs alike.

Come and improve the communication and relationship between you and your dog

The day will consist of individual and group sessions, hands on learning, and slow groundwork exercises for your dog, nothing strenuous or difficult!

Available for all ages and abilities of handler and dogs,
(no dog-to-dog aggressive animals please).

Your dog must be comfortable in a class setting.

£70 per person with dog
Spectators £60 welcome

Price includes tea, coffee, biscuits. Please bring your own lunch.

Places are very limited due to small class size (max 6 dogs).
Please book now, a £20 deposit will be required to hold your place.
